

HomeBridge Youth Society, Board Member Madeleine Myers Recipient of AFPNS Spirit Award

Paul McNair President, Association of Fundraising Professionals
Nova Scotia Chapter presenting award to Madeleine Myers

Youth, Employees, and Board Members of HomeBridge Youth Society are pleased to announce that Madeleine Myers C.A. has received an Association of Fundraising Professionals, Nova Scotia Chapter 2008 Spirit Award.

Madeleine has been a dedicated Board Member with HomeBridge Youth Society since 1999. She filled the role of Treasurer, Board Chair, and now serves as Past Chair. Madeleine brings a business perspective to the organization that has assisted in improving the service provided to at risk youth. She displays integrity, strategy, passion and enthusiasm with every task she performs. Madeleine has lead HomeBridge to a higher level of performance and credibility. We would like to thank Madeleine for being a model and inspiration for all of us. Madeleine is the Controller at Westfish. She lives in Dartmouth with her husband Chris and their children Connor, Grace, Cole, and Callum.

Established in 1977, as a not for profit charitable organization, HomeBridge Youth Society is the largest residential youth caring organization in Atlantic Canada. Members of the HomeBridge Community include Hawthorne House, Johnson House, Jubien House, Sullivan House, the Reigh Allen Centre, Cogswell House and the Bridges for Learning Program. Facilities are located throughout the Halifax Regional Municipality and serve youth at risk between the ages of 12 and 18 years old.
